Except in remote districts, a man with money can travel with salety and comfort, tinding shelter and accommodations commensurate with his weight of purse and willingness to pay. He can sleep on sheep-skins and buildno-robes, or recline on beds of down or spring cork and wool mattresses. He can have the ground-floor in a corner of a mud-roofed cabin, or luxuriate in hotel apartments equal to those of Long Branch or Cape May, and certainly at much lower rates. He can tive on mush and milk, red-pepper hash, or upon the fatness of the land, varied and shundard, from the temperate zones and the tropics. Money has the same magical influence here as in New York.

"Now, then, Joseph, parse courting," said a teacher to a rather slow boy.
"Courtin' is an irregular, active, transitive
verb, indicative mood, present tense,
hird person and singular number, and so on," said Joseph. "Well, but what does it agree with?" demanded the teacher.
"It agrees with all the gals in town!"
triumphantly exclaimed Joseph.

'What! you take your mother-in-law out shooting?' says a French sportsman in me of Cham's pictures to another sports-man. 'Yes.' is the reply, 'with a five-dollar gun that I have presented har -there's no knowing what may happen.'

A remarkable series of disasters have attended the English shipping in the Paeifie ocean since last spring. The Dallam, lower. Cambridge, Spire, John Kerr, ock-and-Lock, Marie, British Admiral, Southern Belle, Noupariel and Crysomon have all been wrecked in the last six months. 'As fleeting as watering-place love' is now considered an expressive saying.

COMMENDABLE. In these days of Railroad monopolies it is so seldom we see anything really generous on the part of Railroads that we cannot pass unnoticed the liberal policy adopted by the managemen of the "Old Reliable" Hannibal and St. Joseph Mallrush.

This Company has recently placed on sale as all Stations on its line, excursion or round trigitiekets to any other Station on the line, at twenty per cent. discount from regular rates.

This liberality on the part of the new management cannot fail to make the "Joid Reliable" routes.

The "Old Beliable" already enjoys an envisible reputation as being the Great Through Passenger Route between the East and Wost; an with its generous and careful management we predict for it still greater popularity. Teb28U
